From the Church Office:

There is a new bulletin board located in the coat room near the lift. This bulletin board will be dedicated to community events. However, this week and next, the first draft of our next contact book can be found there (with a second copy downstairs). Please take a minute to check the entries for you and your family and note any changes that are needed.

Please take special notice of whether we have an accurate email address for you. We need your permission to publish it in the contact book, so even if you get emails from the church, we can't publish it until you print it on one of the posted versions. More than one email address in your household? Clearly indicate which one belongs to each person and we can print them all. Questions? Ask Carolyn.
